THIRTEEN DROWN IN A CANAL

An Overcrowded Launch Strikes a Stump and Overturns

WAS RAINING AND DARK

When Accident Occurred and Boat Was Only 15 Feet From the Bank—Seven Children Numbered Among the Victims.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Syracuse, N. Y., June 22.—An investigation of the launch accident yesterday which resulted in the drowning of 13 people in the Oswego canal last night is being made under the direction of Coroner Moore.

There were 20 passengers on the boat and it was reported today that the craft was licensed to carry not more than 10 passengers. It was raining at the time of the accident and the canvas curtains had been pulled down and buttoned securely so that the boat proved a death trap for its passengers.

Seven children were numbered among the victims. Three women and two men were also drowned, only one of the children on the boat at the time of the accident was saved.

Lewis Dainer, owner of the launch said today that he was not more than 15 feet from the bank, that there were sufficient life preservers on the boat to accommodate all aboard and that all would have been saved but the rain and the night being so dark made it impossible to see the people struggling in the water. Dainer said that his boat struck some object in the water probably a stump causing the launch to overturn. Two of Dainer's children are among the victims.

Among those known to have perished besides the Dainer children were:

Mrs. George Adams, Syracuse, three Adams children, Margaret, 4; years, Lillian, 2 years and an infant, 6 months old.

John Moss, Syracuse, an engineer. Miss Welsh, Syracuse.

The body of Miss Welsh and that of an unidentified child were recovered half an hour after the tragedy.

At least three men and one woman, who were on the ill-fated launch, swam to safety on the banks of the canal, less than 50 feet away.

Mrs. Lewis Dainer, wife of the owner of the launch, reached shore, but was in a serious condition at midnight.

The accident occurred at 10:30 o'clock, less than 10 minutes after the launch left the dock.

"I had just started on my journey and was less than a quarter of a mile from the lock, when the launch struck a stump," Dainer said. "Before I knew what had happened the boat tipped over."

"I had life preservers aboard but there was no opportunity to use them. There was no opportunity to rescue the women or children. It was every one for himself in the darkness."

For seven years the launch had been plying between the two points on the canal. It is a twenty-five-foot craft.

COSHOCKTON MAN FIRES A BULLET THROUGH BRAIN

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Columbus, June 22.—Edwin C. Beach, 30, of Coshocton shot himself in the head early today in his room at a local hotel and was found dead by a bellboy. The man fired one bullet through his brain death being inspired by a strange desire he had for eight years to kill himself, since he fell from a horse. This motive he bared in letters left his wife and brother. Beach's brother is H. D. Beach, a Coshocton manufacturer.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, Pa., June 22.—Hundreds of persons were attracted to meadow lands near here today by the spectacle of burning oil tanks, while fifty men under Frank McCue, superintendent of the United Coal company, fought to save the cabins of a score or more miners from the flames.

The tank, filled with 23,000 barrels of oil was struck by lightning early today and it was expected it would burn for several days. The loss was estimated at $25,000.

Railroads Win Suit In Supreme Court, Involving $700,000,000 Land Titles

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, June 22.—Transcontinental railroads won their fight for title to some $700,000,000 worth of oil lands when the Supreme court today held void the clause in the patents making the land revert to the government if found to contain minerals. "In every case before this court," said Justice Vanevor, "we have held that where the law says only mineral or homestead lands are to be granted by the land officials, the officials must do their duty of ascertaining whether that land came within the law and that they could not perform their duty by inserting exceptions that the land should not pass if found later not to be within the law."

The court held that the patents were irregular but that they could not be attacked collaterally—by other claimants—but could only be set aside by a direct attack by the government.

Justice Vandever, for the court, incidentally emphasized the claim that the government's title in which it could attack the patents had expired in 1900 or 1901.

Justice Vandever pointed out that all the land patents granted to railroads since 1866 contained a clause declaring the land should not pass from the government if later it was found to contain minerals.

"Let us see what this would mean in the case of the Northern Pacific," said he. "The Northern Pacific got every alternate section of land in a forty mile strip from Duluth to the Pacific. Should these clauses be held void the question would arise as to whether those who long ago purchased from the railroad and created farms, ranches and towns upon them had rights.

The company contended that evidence could not be presented at this date to show that the lands were mineral and that the issuance of the patents was conclusive proof that they were not. It also argued that the exception was void.

The government has a separate suit distinguished from the case today to cancel the patents to oil lands held by the trans-continental carriers.

Today's decision was in a case brought by Edmund Burke of California, who claimed the right to land now held by the Southern Pacific on the ground that they should revert to the government because oil had been found after the issue of the patent to the railroad.

Inasmuch as all the trans-continental lines have similar lands they came into the proceeding. The court decided practically only point in favor of the government's contentions—that oil lands were mineral lands.

The recovery however, of lands exceeding in value seven times all the gold coin in the United States and more than all the personal property and real estate taxed in Louisiana, Rhode Island, Virginia, North Carolina or Nebraska as involved.

GREECE WOULD PURCHASE TWO BATTLESHIPS

From United States, And President Wilson Approves the Proposed Sale.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, June 22.—President Wilson told inquirers today that he was supporting the provision in the naval bill to sell the battleships Mississippi and Idaho to Greece. He had been assured by A. Vorros, Greek charge d'affaires, that battleships are not to be used in any immediate war. Mr. Wilson told callers that if he had any idea that the vessels were to be used against Turkey or any other nation he would not support the project.

The Greek Charge and Commander Tsouklas, of the Greek navy, had an engagement later today to discuss the question with the President. Ruston Bey, the new Turkish ambassador also had an engagement with the President today to discuss the projected sale of the battleships to Greece, in view of reports of threatened war between the two countries.

FEDERAL INQUIRY INTO SINKING OF RIVER STEAMER

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] St. Louis, June 22.—A federal inquiry into the sinking of the excursion steamer Majestic in the Mississippi river near St. Louis early Saturday morning was begun here today. One lifeboat was lost in the sinking of the boat which struck the foundation of the new intake tower of the municipal waterworks one hour after 900 girls and women had been put ashore at Alton, Ills.

BANDITS MAY BE CHARGED WITH MURDER

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Columbus, June 22.—Henry Schwick, aged 59, who with his brother, Frederick, was attacked on their farm near Taylor's Station two weeks ago and beaten and robbed by a trio of bandits—Arthur Strom, Ernest and Earl Jones—died early today in a local hospital. While physicians say that death was directly due to cancer it is contended that the injuries Schwick received, hastened his death.

Prosecutor Turner ordered Coroner Benkert to hold an autopsy to determine whether Schwick's death was due to the attack of the bandits. Upon the coroner's verdict depends whether the bandits will be charged with murder.

Strom and Ernest Jones are now serving sentences in the penitentiary while Earl Jones is confined in the Mansfield reformatory. All pleaded guilty to robbery of the Schwick brothers.

CAMPAIGN FOR BABY WELFARE IN NEW YORK

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] New York, June 22.—The little girls of ten to twelve years who mind the baby while mother is out, are being honored today at the opening of the week's campaign conducted by the city health department for baby welfare. A letter from Mayor Mitchell to be read in the schools is to be followed by "little mothers" in the first grade classes signing the pledge to be the baby's friend.

The program in the schools today provides for talks by teachers of child hygiene and nurses and practical demonstration on how properly to care for the baby.

FACTIONS MAY AGREE TO PLAN

Huerta and Carranza Delegates to Hold Conference

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

Has Brought Strong Pressure to Bear to Settle on Peace Plans and Agree on the Naming of Provisional President for Mexico.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Niagara Falls, Ont., June 22.—The United States government has invited representatives of General Carranza and General Huerta to meet at an informal conference here with the hope of bringing about the pacification of Mexico.

The Huerta delegates today informed the American delegates through the mediators they were willing to deal with the constitutionalists in this way.

Actual negotiations between representatives of the two fighting factions in Mexico in an effort to agree on an individual for the provisional presidency is the latest plan which the mediators have evolved for the solution of the Mexican problem.

Just how the factions will be drawn together remained a secret today and it became known that strong pressure had been brought to bear on General Carranza, through the American government and that the mediators had persuaded the Huerta government to come into the plan.

Informal parleys between the representatives of the two factions, outside of the formal mediation proceedings, but with the counsel and advice of the American delegates is the object of the new plan. This move was adopted as a last resort—every effort to get the constitutionalists to agree to an armistice as desired by the mediators having failed.

The appeal which is said to have induced the factions, is that the Mexicans themselves must save their country from further spoliation and bloodshed by each making certain sacrifices, but neither side will be asked to abandon the principles for which they have been contending. It will be several days before the plans will materialize and constitutionalists delegates can arrive in the meantime the mediators will continue their discussion of the other points in the general peace plan than those on which they have been deadlocked. Separate conversations with the Huerta and American delegates were set for today.

The determination seems to be to leave the question of a provisional president to the two Mexican factions to decide. Any agreement which they may reach will be sanctioned by the American government and the result of the negotiations would later be incorporated in the mediation proceedings for final agreement.

After the conference between the American delegates and the mediators Justice Lamar said he had not been authorized to make any statement. He indicated however that the proceedings would be discussed, secretary being scrupulously maintained on every side. A few minutes later the Mexican delegation was summoned for a conference with the mediators.

WILSON THINKS THE SENATE WILL SUPPORT TREATIES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, June 22.—President Wilson believes that when the Colombian and Nicaraguan treaties are understood, they will be amply supported by the Senate. He made this clear to callers today but refused to go into details. The treaties are pending before the foreign relations committee before which Secretary Bryan again appeared today to continue his explanation. There is some opposition to the proposed payment of $25,000 to Colombia, and to features of the Nicaraguan treaty, which some senators contend would unduly to sustain the present government there.

PUT TO DEATH IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Ossining, N. Y., June 22.—Peter Rebacci, a 19-year-old Italian, a tool of a black hand "murder syndicate" in Westchester county was put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison today for the murder of Tony Marro of White Plains. ## FIFTY MORE BODIES ARE RECOVERED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Hillcrest, Alta., June 22.—Discovery by rescuers of fifty bodies lying in one of the tunnels of Mine No. 20 of the Hillcrest Collieries limited, today brought up to 181 the total of recovered dead at the mine which was wrecked by an explosion Friday. Eighty grave diggers worked all day in the little mountain side cemetery just outside of the village and by night it is expected the greater part of the former male population of the mining colony will be resting there.

STREET LIGHTS GLARED WHILE BURGLARS WORK

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Cleveland, June 22.—Burglars working in the glare of street lights early today broke the display window of A. Bergman's jewelry store, Superior avenue, and stole jewelry which the police valued at $1200.

The store is opposite the city hall and postoffice. The burglars evidently took their time at the job. Using a long pole with a hook attached, they fished out the more valuable watches, diamond rings and bracelets and escaped.

TRIAL FLIGHT OF FLYING BOAT OCCURS TODAY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Hammondsport, N. Y., June 22.—The danger of encountering storms if the start of the proposed trans-Atlantic flight of the America is postponed until after the middle of July, has caused the builders of the flier here to make every effort to begin the trial flights immediately. It was planned to launch the America today at 10 o'clock. Lieut. John C. Porte, her chief pilot, was expected to make the first trial flight.

It was at first intended that the flying boat should try for the London Daily Mail prize of $50,000 in the early fall.

CONTRIBUTION TO CONSCIENCE FUND

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, June 22.—Secretary McAdoo received a $620 contribution to the conscience fund today from somebody in Burlington, Iowa. There was no clue to the identity of the sender of the record contribution for the current fiscal year. Nearly a half million dollars has found its way back to the government in that mysterious fashion since Madison's time.

KEEPER IS KILLED BY HIS LIONS

Knocked Down In Cage And Beasts Pounce Upon Him

PART OF BODY DEVoured

Victim Was Cornell Graduate and An Athlete—The Tragedy Occurred on the Railroad Sidetrack at Chicago—Animals May Be Killed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Chicago, June 22.—A squad of police armed with rifles today had charge of five young lions and their mother which last night killed and partly devoured their keeper Emerson Dietrich, Cornell graduate, football player and son of a Brooklyn, N. Y. architect. The animals are the property of Miss Adgie Castillo, a vaudeville performer who exhibited them. She employed Dietrich as her assistant and said they were engaged to be married.

Whether the animals will be destroyed will be decided after an inquiry into the tragedy. Tribby, the mother was a tame old lion. The five young lions were not quite full grown, born in captivity, bottle reared and considered harmless. Dietrich was knocked down in the cage, accidentally, it is thought, but as soon as the beast smelled his blood they were transformed from playful cubs to jungle man eaters. The cage was in a freight car in the railroad yards. George McCord, an assistant who had entered the cage with Dietrich, could not save him and fled.

Neither Dietrich nor McCord had any previous experience in wild beast taming, it was said. The police planned to inquire how Dietrich went into a dimly lighted den with six hungry lions without not means at hand for his protection. The police prepared to kill all the lions last night, but were urged not to by McCord who said the cage would not be strong enough to hold the animals if they were roused to a frenzy by the shooting.

The lions, ten in number, were in two cages inside a box car. Dietrich went to the car to water them and prepare the car for his trip, while his fiancée, Adgie Castillo, went to Lincoln Park to visit Cy de Vry.

Dietrich found George McCord, an attendant, in charge of the car. "These fellows are pretty mean today because of the weather," McCord said he remarked to Dietrich, as the latter entered the car to water the beasts and clean the car.

"They never would hurt me in 1,000 years," said Dietrich, as he opened the cage and slammed it behind him. "Tribby," an old lioness, rolled on her back and struck at Dietrich playfully as he walked past her.

"Lookout, Boss," warned McCord. "Don't be a coward," replied Dietrich, "they are just playing."

Just then there was a yellow flash through the air and before McCord could shout out a warning "Teddy," a young lion, had thrown himself upon Dietrich and had knocked him across the cage.

The lion's claws slashed into Dietrich's shoulder and the blood was flowing when McCord sprang to his feet and grabbed a pitchfork. Four other lions had joined "Teddy," growling loudly and lashing their tails along the side of the cage. "Teddy" made another spring toward the bleeding man, but the aged lioness jumped in front of Dietrich as though to protect him and severed the angry lion to one side. Dietrich was trying to force his way to the door of the cage, but was caught in the rush of the other lions and went down under the growling, clawing, biting, scratching mass. Old "Tribby" was pushed aside.

McCord had grabbed a pitchfork, but the lack of room prevented its use and he was unable to get the tines into his car.

With one last cry of "My God, get me out of here," Dietrich fell to the floor again as "Teddy" hit him with his paw, a blow that McCord saw slash open his chest from shoulder to shoulder.

McCord ran from the car into the street shouting for help. Within a short time two wagon loads of policemen and the fire department apparatus arrived at the scene.

An effort was made to get the body but the lions refused to back away. Blows on the snouts from short sticks and clubs only brought angry snarls and blows at the bars with paws. Finally McCord got hold of the belt that was wound Dietrich's wrist and a rope was tied to this. The body was lifted to the top of the cage and held there while men kept the lions away with iron rods which had been brought in.

The body, torn beyond recognition, was taken to an undertaking room near by. Dietrich's head, one arm and a leg had been eaten.

It was the first award made to the girl scouts by the society.

CULEBRA CUT MAY BE CALLED GAILLARD

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM] Washington, June 22.—A proposal to rename Culebra Cut, Gaillard Cut in honor of the late Col. David Du B. Gaillard, the army engineer, who chained the foot of the mountain there and by his untiring devotion to duty, contracted a malady which caused his death, was laid before President Wilson today by Representative Finley of South Carolina. Mr. Finley said the president incidentally approved of the plan.

WOMAN AT OUTVILLE SUICIDES

Mrs. Grace Johnson, 46, colored, wife of Porter Johnson, committed suicide in the presence of her family in their home at Outville Saturday night about 11 o'clock. Mr. Johnson and his two daughters were in the living room adjoining a down-stairs bedroom when the tragedy occurred. Nothing was suspected until Mrs. Johnson screamed and she was seen in the bedroom through the door of the living room holding a bottle in her hand. Her husband immediately rushed to her side and found that the bottle contained carbolic acid and that Mrs. Johnson had drained the bottle of its contents. As Dr. J. T. Leatherman was out of town an effort was made to summon a doctor from Granville. When the doctor from Granville arrived alcohol was administered as an antidote but to no avail. The unfortunate woman expired within ten minutes after the arrival of the physician.

Mrs. Johnson had been married three times and had been married to her last husband for two years. There were no children born from this last union. From her first marriage Mrs. Johnson has two married daughters residing in Columbus. Two daughters, Bertha and Martha Lomac, aged 11 and 14 respectively, reside at the home and were present at the time of the tragedy. They are children of Mrs. Johnson's second marriage.

The Johnson family physician states that Mrs. Johnson was temporarily demented, and was suffering from melancholy caused by ill-health.

Funeral services were held Monday.

HARVEY MOORE MAKES BIG HIT AT LAKE PARK

There was a large crowd at Buckeye Lake Sunday and the water was full of small craft from early morning until late at night. Scores of fishermen were out but the sun fish were scarce as they have evidently gone to the deep water and are not running at the present time. A number of good catches of bass were reported, however, but the majority of the fishermen were after the smaller fry.

The various concessions were liberally patronized and the dance halls were crowded both at the park and at the Glass pavilion. Manager Harris has a seven-piece orchestra under leadership of Mr. McCord, leader of the Keith theater orchestra at Columbus. One of the chief deputies from the state fire-marshall's office at Columbus visited the park lately and complimented Manager Harris for his careful observance of the state fire laws. The several approaches to the dancing floor are kept cleared by uniformed officers. This gives a free exit and ingress to the floor and there is no danger to either the spectators or the dancers in case there should be a stampede. Manager Harris is observing the requirements of the state fire laws and his course will be approved by all patrons of the park.

A new forty-horse power boat has been placed in service by the Del Fisher Boat Co. It is a Salem pattern and a beauty. The boat is capable of twenty miles an hour and carries eight people comfortably. It has a canopy top, upholstered chairs and is undoubtedly the finest and fastest boat that has ever been on the lake.

As an added attraction for park patrons Manager Harris has secured Mr. Harvey Moore and Miss Rose Miller of New York for cabaret work. The pleasing ballroom of Mr. Moore will now be heard each Sunday at the lake. Mr. Moore is well known in Newark as a former manager of the Orpheum Theater and also from his participation in the 1913 Elik's minstrel in which he was one of the biggest hits of the show, singing "Rebecca of Sunny-Brook Farm."

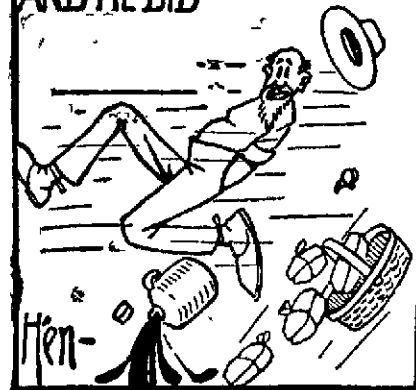

In the band stand that is next to the Harris pavilion Mr. Moore and Miss Miller and Miss May White, accompanist made their first appearance in cabaret singing. This talented troop has been engaged by W. D. Harris to give concerts throughout the season. This will be pleasing news to the thousands who visit the park each Sunday.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water, drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. ## HINTS FOR FARMERS.

A good coat of whitewash in the poultry house would prevent a great many lice from ever seeing the light of day.

Don't feed spoiled food to the poultry. It is poor economy, as they may become poisoned or contract disease. Burn all rotted food immediately.

If you are thinking of putting in an orchard and don't know how to do it hire a good man to do it for you. A good orchard is both profitable and pleasurable, but a lot of scrub fruit trees are worse than useless.

Don't forget that all animals need salt in large quantities. A cake of rock salt should be kept where all the animals on the farm can easily reach it. Or, better still, mix a few spoonfuls of fine table salt in the feed each day.

The productive life of the average hen is only two years. Some hens are good layers at three and four years, but these are exceptions to the rule. As a general thing it will not pay to keep a hen after she is three years old.

The remedy for sour land is lime and proper drainage. First, drain off all moisture and allow the soil to become dry. Then spread ground limestone rock and as this works down into the soil you will find all trace of sourness disappears.

During the hot days of summer your hens need plenty of shade and plenty of water. See that they are given a plentiful supply of fresh water every day, and provide them some kind of shelter from the fierce rays of the summer sun. If you have no natural shade a sun shelter can be easily made from old bagging or burlap.

Why State Taxes Can Be Reduced

Under the old order of things, prior to the advent of a Democratic administration in Ohio, the interest collected upon the public funds was not turned into the state treasury. Since the Democrats came into power in this state, the interest on these funds has been collected and turned into the state treasury. It has amounted in five years to more than one million dollars, and the money is on hand, standing to the people's credit. Also, Democratic officials have recovered from their predecessors and the banks whom their bosses favored more than $100,000 in interest pocketed by them and turned it into the state treasury. It is there to the people's credit.

The people themselves amended the constitution of the state so that saloons should be licensed. In pursuance of this amendment a law was passed under this administration creating a state liquor licensing board, which took entire charge of the saloon business in the state. Under this licensing board not only has the number of saloons been reduced, intemperance minimized as evidenced by the police court records of the state, immoral resorts closed and rigid regulations provided, but the entire cost of the administration of the law has been imposed upon the saloons themselves and the state liquor licensing board will turn into the state treasury more than a half million dollars of clear profit at the end of its first year of existence. That money stands to the people's credit in the state treasury.

Under a law passed by the present legislature the expenses of the banking department of the state are no longer defrayed from the public treasury, but the banks themselves pay it, and, instead of being an expense, this department is able to turn a small surplus into the state treasury to the people's credit.

The same is true of the building and loan department, the expenses of which are no longer borne by the people, but by the building and loan associations themselves.

Under Democratic administrations some thirty or forty separate, distinct and independent state departments personally experienced, it has the magnetic quality of human interest. Years ago graduating exercises were written on vague and grandiloquent themes. Tens of thousands of fluffy and soaring girls have written on "Over the Alps Lies Italy." "Knowledge is Power" is another stock subject that the average school trotted out every other year. Nothing new can possibly be said by a graduating class about such subjects. Let them talk about everyday business and domestic life, the birds and wild flowers they have seen, their experiences in travel or vacations, everyday work and play among young people, the needs, enterprises, and occupations of their home town. To such subjects as these, they can add some personal touch.

Denison Alumni.

The Alumni Association of Denison university, has announced a plan to be put in operation during the next school year, that is, as far as known, something new in the activities generally noticeable in associations of this character. It demonstrates that the graduates of Denison, in classes that have covered a period of many years, who have banded themselves together into a society, that has many worthy objects that foster a feeling of love and gratitude toward their Alma Mater, also take cognizance of the present workings of the institution, and stand ready to propagate or aid any plan, looking forward to increasing the efficiency of the university in equipping its students to take their places in the world of action, with a full complement of those qualities that are necessary to make their lives, a success.

The plan announced last week at the alumni meeting is to have certain men who have made pre-eminent successes in the business world, give lectures during the coming school year, to the under graduate body of Denison, upon subjects that have to do with every day business activities: to set before the young people still in school, the principal elements of character that are essential to attain the proper kind of success that commands the respectful admiration of mankind.

Professor W. H. Johnson, of Granville, secretary of the alumni association said Sunday that there would probably be a half dozen men asked to make addresses, each along the line of his individual specialty. Of course these men have not been selected as yet, but they will be men of note, and the alumni association will stand back of the experiment in the way of guaranteeing the financial support that may be necessary.

It would seem that only good can result from the operation of this plan, not only to the student body, but to the old graduates as well and finally to the university as an institution. In calling to the minds of the executive and administrative authorities a realization of the interest and loyal solicitude of the hundreds of alumni.

THE DENTIST

He well deserves a laurel wreath, the man who tinkers with my teeth, when they are out of plumb; he plugs them up with melted lead, and soothes my swollen and aching head, and heals the tortured gum. Upon his skill your comfort hangs when you have trouble with your fangs and seldom does he fail; his shining instrument he wags and draws the old insurgent snags; then draws his slice of kale. No more you hear in dentist's room the shrieks of those who dread their doom, of those whose souls are sick; the patient calmly sits and smiles, while the dentist with his files and pincers does the trick. How different in olden days! The dentist then had painful ways; he sat upon a bench, and took your head between his knees, and, muttering, "Look pleasant, please," he piled his monkey wrench. It took six men to hold me down when he adjusted bridge or crown, or plugged a hollow fang, and travelers could hear me roar away upon the distant shore of Yang-tze-kian. But now I like the dentist's chair, I like to sit and rest me there, from morning until dusk, to sit in comfort and to snooze, and have the gentle dentist use his forceps on my tusk.

A prominent Newark man's little boy had always been a model of propriety, but like all children he would occasionally "pick up" a few words from grown-ups. One night when all had retired, the tot, who may be called Bobby, awakened his daddy and asked for a drink. The father was obliging and brought it. No sooner had he returned to bed than there came a pleading wail for "another drink." The father, somewhat annoyed, brought the second drink, pretty soon there was another request for "a jink." This time the father rather sternly commanded the little lad to keep quiet and go to sleep. The order was of little avail. Bobby called again.

"Well, if you want any more drinks go and get them yourself," said the parent, somewhat peeved. There was silence for a little bit, but presently there could be heard the "thump-thump" of little feet paddling in the direction of the water supply. There was a clink of glass, a little gurgle, and then a childish voice was heard to murmur: "I'll dis jink ev-y djam djop."

Christine, four years old, was pretending to learn to sew, the process involving strenuous experiences for the family. The needle came unthreaded, the thread snarled, the goods puckered—each accident calling for someone's intervention. Finally the needle dropped to the floor and was lost. The small autocrat demanded that her great-aunt find it. Rather resenting such subservency the lady made a feeble pretense of hunting for it as a plausible prelude for the statement that she could not find it. Calmly rocking back and forth in her little chair Christine patronizingly remarked, "Well, if at first you don't exceed, try, try again."

A little Newark girl who was just beginning to read was sent to the shoemaker's shop with some shoes that needed mending. In a short time she returned and announced to her mother that the shop was closed because the shoemaker's partner was dead. The item of partnership was news to the mother and with a puzzled inspection of her small daughter she asked, "How did you know?" "Because," answered the little girl, "there was a sign up in the window that said, 'No More Trust—Trust is Dead.'"

The baby was very quiet—such an unusual circumstance that she was asked the reason for it. She answered, "I just want to rest my talks."

The house was prettily arranged in pink and green and in the front parlor where the ceremony took place was erected an altar, the background of which was of palms and ferns, over which were spread a mesh of pink roses. The bride was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Emma Abbott of Utica, and Miss Hazel Mallory as bridesmaid. The groom's best man was Mr. Friend Kniseley, brother of the bride. Evans, a company of over fifty stealthily proceeded to the Needham residence on Florence street and the worthy occupants immediately surrendered to the force of the attack.

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE

BY BARBARA BOYD

Whipping In and Out of Matrimony.

"I just met Arthur Duval on the street," said the Clubwoman, brightly, "and he tells me he is going to be married."

"Humph," replied the Old Maid. "I had to laugh," went on the Clubwoman, "at the reason he gave for the plunge, as he called it. Of course, I knew he was only joking, but he said that eating at restaurants had driven him into matrimony."

"Humph," again remarked the Old Maid. "Who is he marrying?"

"Ethel Wentworth."

"If eating in restaurants has driven him into matrimony, living in apartment houses will drive him out of it. And that is the sort of home he'll have. Housekeeping is not Ethel's long suit. If that is his reason for marrying, he should have chosen a different sort of girl."

"Of course, he was only joking," responded the Clubwoman. "What he wants, as do most men, is a home. The restaurant mode of living has perhaps accentuated his desire."

"And the boarding house method of living makes many a man as anxious to get out of matrimony as the restaurant table made him eager to get in," tartly replied the Old Maid. "Seems to me most people whip in and out of marriage nowadays any way. They get married for as superficial a reason as a restaurant and divorced for the equally light cause of a boarding-house."

"Arthur is not that sort," contended the Clubwoman. "What he meant was, as I have said, that he wanted a home. And he has a big enough understanding of life to know that a home doesn't grow over night, and patience enough to give it time to develop. Those who whip in and out of marriage aren't patient enough to wait for what they want. They lack self-restraint. And they haven't the vision to see that what they desire is worth waiting for."

"No amount of patient waiting will transform a lazy, ignorant girl into a good housekeeper," scoffed the Old Maid. "It will only give the husband chronic indigestion."

"Mix in some love," said the Clubwoman, cheerily, "and some tact. Arouse enthusiasm and ambition to have a beautiful, comfortable, shining home. Give the vision of what the future will mean for them both if she will do her part, and I think she will soon be pulling with him. I am sure that is better than whipping in and out of matrimony."

"Better perhaps, but not so easy," cynically replied the Old Maid. "And most people take the easiest way."

Be Clean! Inside and Outside

If you would be healthy, strong and happy. Bath keeps the skin clean and in good condition. But what about the inside of the body? You can no more afford to neglect it than the outside. It is just as important that the system be cleansed of the poisonous impurities caused by weakness of the digestive organs or by inactivity of the liver.

Chicago Grain Situation.
[Associated Press Telegram]
Chicago, June 22.—Wheat took a downward turn today, influenced by falling quotations at Liverpool. The result was the local price level reached here so far on this year's crop. Commission houses were generally on the selling side. There was a scattering of reports of bids made from Chicago to the market, which was a shade to 1/2¢ lower, the market gave no sign of any important rally.
Many weather and prospects of more weakened the price of corn. Besides eastern shipping call was said to have been made, the start ranging from 1/4¢ off to 1/2¢ up, was followed by a 1/2¢, which was especially noticeable in the July delivery. Oats dropped with corn.
Crop damage reports seemed to have lost their force.
Higher prices for hogs made provisions firm. Changes, however, were narrow.

First Things
The first rebel general to raise the standard of revolt in Mexico, following the independence of the country, in 1821, was Antonio Lopez de Santa Ana, who died in the City of Mexico thirty-eight years ago today. Santa Ana was born in 1783 and as a boy entered the revolutionary army and soon became prominent in the movement for the expulsion of the Spaniards. After the attainment of freedom in 1821 the leader of the victorious army, Augustin Iturbide, was elected emperor. Santa Ana had favored the establishment of a republic, and the empire of Augustine I. was less than five months old when Santa Ana led a rebellion and proclaimed the republic. He was the provisional head of the republic after the abdication of the Emperor in 1823 until the first presidential election, in which Gen. Guadalupe Victoria was victorious. Santa Ana became president in 1833, and tried in vain, by the most brutal measures, to suppress the revolution against Mexican authority in Texas. He was captured by the Texans, but was later released. He was an exile when the United States began its war on Mexico, but returned to his native land on the outbreak of hostilities and soon gained the presidency. He was again president from 1852 to 1855.

New York, June 22.—The baseball atmosphere disturbed Sunday by the announcement that the magnates of the organized game had about decided to launch a third major league to combat Federal League opposition, was still somewhat unsettled today.
Echoes were heard from the West of opposition to the proposed move on the part of American Association men and other representatives of the organized game, but they fell upon unresponsive ears, so far as this city was concerned. Hardly a representative of the big leagues was left in town, and such as were here were silent on the baseball topic of the hour.

Sunday evening in the Church of The Blessed Sacrament in East Main street the annual parochial commencement was held, and a class terson. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Father B. M. O'Bo-philosophical character of the sermons delivered by him. After the baccalaureate sermon the diplomas were delivered immediately after which the benediction was given.

The services were simple but very impressive and were attended by a large audience consisting of the relatives and the friends of the graduates.
The class consisted of seven girls and one boy, each receiving their di-

TO SAVE EYES

Is the Object of This Free Prescription
Try It If Your Eyes Give You Trouble.

Thousands of people suffer from eye troubles because they do not know what to do. They are in some good need remedy for every other minor ailment, but none for their eye troubles. They neglect their eyes, because the trouble is not a frequent driver them to an eye specialist, who would, anyway, charge them a heavy fee. As a last resort they go to an optician or to the five and ten-cent store, and oftentimes get glasses that they do not need, or which, after being used two or three months, do their eyes more injury than good. Here is a simple prescription that every one should use.
5 grains Optona (1 tablet).
2 ounces of Water.
Use three or four times a day to bathe the eyes. This prescription and the simple Optona system keeps the eyes clean, sharpens the vision and quickly overcomes inflammation and irritation, weak, watery, overworked, tired eyes and other similar troubles are greatly benefited and oftentimes cured by its use. Many reports show that wearers of glasses who use Optona for a few weeks' use. It is good for the eyes and contains no ingredient which would injure the most sensitive eyes of an infant or the aged. J. J. Evans or any druggist can fill this prescription promptly. Try it and know for once what real eye comfort is.

ORGANIZATION OF
BASEBALL LEAGUE
NOW UNDER WAY

As a result of many of the local merchants closing their stores every Thursday afternoon, the Y. M.
C. A. is organizing a Thursday afternoon baseball league. Already two teams have been organized and a game will be played between the grocers' team and the Y. M. C. A. team on the White Athletic Field on Thursday afternoon. Lawrence Inscho is the manager of the grocers' team, and Calvin Hazlett is the manager of the Y. M. C. A. team. When the two teams clash it is expected that a very close and exciting game will be played, as there is an abundant of baseball ability among the grocers, and also among the Y. M.
C. A. athletes.

Teams are now being organized among the hardware clerks and the retail clothing clerks, and it is expected that other teams will be named that will furnish Newark with some very good baseball.

SUCCESSFUL PASTORATE OF REV. W. D. WARD

Entire Indebtedness of Central Church of Christ Has Been Cleared—Much Good Accomplished in County

When the present minister, W. D. Ward, came to the Central Church of Christ, in January, 1910, the first thing that demanded his attention was the debt on the property, of about $7,000. This debt had been dragging for quite awhile, until the burden of it had become very wearisome, especially to the older members. The first attempt that was made was on the penny-a-day basis. The first year of the present pastorate about $1300 was paid on the principle of the debt besides the interest. This gave the members courage to press on, and so a little was paid each year until, in March, 1913, it was found that the entire amount was a little under $5,000.

The pastor called a company of men together for a conference, and the daring suggestion was made that a campaign be organized with the view of paying off the entire indebtedness on one day. The idea found favor with a few, but many were fearful to undertake it, thinking that failure would be disastrous to all such attempts in the future. But the campaign was undertaken, the membership was carefully divided into groups, the workers selected and trained, and as the preliminary work progressed the spirit of hopefulness spread throughout the church. May 4, 1913, was set as the day for the actual raising of the money, and President M. L. Bates, of Hiram College, was called to assist at the task. The result of the day's work was that $4,000 in actual cash was received, and sixty-day pledges were taken to cover the remainder of the debt. The money was all received in due time although some of the members had to go to a bank and borrow their share of it. The spirit of real sacrifice manifested has made the church richer spiritually for all time to come.

On July 7, 1913, President Bates was again present, and the mortgage was burned in the presence of an immense congregation of happy and grateful people. No sooner was the debt on the property paid, than the members were compelled to turn their attention to the repairing of the building. It had been neglected because of the debt until the welfare of the building as well as the appearance of it, demanded that something be done immediately. The walls of the auditorium had never been decorated, but only covered with red plaster. So the church was repaired and decorated during August, 1913, at a cost of about $1,100. Besides, the Sisterhood of the church purchased carpet for the pulpit and cork matting for the aisles at a cost of $250. The building is now one of the most attractive and comfortable churches in the city.

Another notable advance made by the church during the present pastorate has been the assuming of leadership in forming a union of all the churches of Disciples of Christ of Licking County, eleven in number. Because of its efficiency and its achievements, this county union has attracted much attention over the state and beyond. By the strong helping to bear the burdens of the weak, feeble churches in the rural districts have been encouraged and helped to a new life. The pastor of the Central Church, at Newark, has held several meetings that have saved weak congregations from disbanding and given them new strength. One building was repaired, and the church, long since disbanded, was re-organized. As a union, the churches of the county support a missionary church at Caldwell, Ohio, under the direction of the Ohio Christian Missionary Society.

A country paper, published weekly in the interest of the churches in the county, is sustained, with the Newark pastor as editor and Mr. O. C. Larason as assistant editor. This paper, known as "The Licking Christian," is a mighty force in advancing the cause it espouses. A lot on the West Side of Newark has been purchased recently, looking toward the development of another congregation in that part of the city. A mission Sunday school is already being conducted. The church is considering the employment of a pastoral helper in the near future.

TWO ARRESTED FOR A HOLDUP SATURDAY NIGHT

William, alias "Doggie" Feurriegel and William Sebring will be arraigned Tuesday morning before Mayor Bigbee on a charge of holding up Bradford Tobin and robbing him of a watch and chain worth $100, about seven o'clock Saturday night. About 2 o'clock Sunday morning the two mentioned were rounded up in a house in Washington street by officers Harter, Greely, Swinehart and Sunkle. The watch was found on Feurriegel and both men were locked up.

TRAIN RIDER'S LIFE GROUND OUT BY WHEELS

Instant and frightful death under the wheels of B. & O. freight train No. 21, about 6 o'clock Sunday night, was the fate of a man about 50 years of age, supposed to be J. F. Meagher, which name was tattooed under a design on his right arm. The only other clue to his identity is an address scribbled upon a deposit slip of the Citizens' National Bank, Western Port, Md. The address is "Edward R. Simpson, Lord, Maryland."

Lord is a small postoffice in Allegany county, Maryland, as is also Western Port, and an effort will be made to find out something further concerning the identity of the unfortunate man. An eye witness of the shocking accident states that Meagher who was beating his way got off the train when it stopped to take water at Black Hand, and went to a well and got a drink himself. As the train started he attempted to again board it, catching hold with his left hand. His foot slipped. One of the legs went on the track and was cut off. The man appeared to attempt to scramble off when his clothing caught and he fell under the wheels taking off the other leg, one arm and finally cutting the body in two at the waist. He was dragged for about a hundred feet and mangled in a fearful manner, the remains being scooped up and put in a box. Bazler & Bradley went to Black Hand and brought the remains to their morgue where they were put in as presentable shape as possible under the circumstances.

If word is not received from Maryland the body will be buried in Cedar Hill cemetery. A message from Black Hand to interment two companions of the dead man, resulted in one of them being taken into custody by railroad officer Bennett, but he was released without telling anything about Meagher's identity if he knew.

MELANCHOLY WOMEN

Women should understand that melancholy, commonly called the "Blues," is in nine times out of ten a pure symptom of some organic derangement which should have attention. For nearly forty years, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for such conditions, as proved by many testimonials which we are constantly publishing from women who have been restored to health by its use.

MEMORIAL OF ODD FELLOWS AT GRANVILLE

Granville, O., June 22.—The Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Granville held their memorial services in the Methodist church, Sunday at 3 o'clock, Mr. Hiram LaPerre presiding. Members were escorted from the lodge to the church by the Granville Cornet Band. Miss Ruth Rockwood at the organ rendered Guilman's "Marche Religieuse" as a voluntary, after which the congregation, led by Miss Alieret Chrysler, soprano, sang "America." Prayer was offered by Rev. A. J. Hawk of the Methodist church. Miss Chrysler's vocal solo, "Fear Ye Not," was exquisitely rendered, her voice clear and pure, seldom heard to better advantage. The address by Rev. E. E. Haskins of Granville was full of fire and fervor, delivered in a full resonant voice which any orator might envy. He said that the nation which forgets its past, is the nation which does not enquire conversational tones, most organization lies in union, in the spirit of brotherhood. The address by Sheriff Slabaugh was delivered in quiet conversational tones, most inspiring and convincing. After the Postlude by Miss Rockwood, the lodge was escorted to the cemetery by the Granville band.

Denison Summer school begins today under direction of C. E. Godell, Dean. Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Colwell left Monday for Preston, Md., where they will attend the wedding of their son, Wm. A. Colwell to Miss Mattie Reynolds, on June 24, at 4 o'clock p. m. Dr. Colwell will perform the ceremony. From Baltimore they will go to Boothbay Harbor, Maine and spend the remainder of the vacation at their charming summer home.

APPLES PROMISE A HEAVY YIELD

Washington, June 22.—Apples this year promise a heavy yield in Maryland and North Carolina, the finest crop in the history of Colorado, an unusual crop in Michigan, good crops in Virginia Georgia and South Carolina and prospects in other states generally good or above average, according to reports to the department of agriculture, announced today.

WEATHER MAN IS CHANGEABLE DURING JUNE

Another freak of temperature was experienced by Newarkites over Sunday. While Friday and Saturday nights were so cool that in many places heaters were called back into service, Sunday morning brought a decided rise in temperature. A few clouds and occasional light, westerly breezes helped a little, but the mercury jumped to 90 in shaded places in Newark during the afternoon Sunday.

TWO CANDIDATES FOR POSITION OF SUPERINTENDENT

To date the names of but two candidates for the position of county superintendent of schools have been mentioned. Superintendent Jordan of the Pataskala schools and C. L. Smith, superintendent of Utica schools, are said to be receptive candidates. The county board, recently elected, will meet to organize this week, it is expected, and it is likely the candidates will be considered at that time, although the actual election of a county superintendent probably will not come very much before the date for beginning of duties of the county board, which is July 15.
